

Dartington Trust

We are excited to share that the BBC Antiques Roadshow will be filming at Dartington Estate on Sunday 31 May 2026. We are delighted to be hosting Fiona Bruce and her team of experts, and want to advise that the Dartington Estate will operate differently on this day.

Strictly ticketed: the filming areas located in the Courtyard, Private Garden, Great Hall and Great Lawn are open only to those who have secured tickets in advance

No tickets on the day: please be aware that there are no tickets available on the day. To avoid disappointment and help us manage site capacity, we kindly ask that those who do not have a BBC ticket to avoid visiting the Estate on Sunday 31 May

The Barn Cinema, White Hart pub and Elmhirst Heritage Centre will be closed. However, the Cider Press Centre, the Green Table Cafe and the Garden Cafe will operate as normal

Parking: onsite car parks will be reserved for ticket holders attending the Antiques Roadshow event and these car parks will be managed by the BBC event team. Parking for non-ticket holders will be limited and not guaranteed, however the wider Estate (outside of the filming areas mentioned above) will be open to walkers

Normal service: We look forward to welcoming you back on Monday 1 June, when the site returns to normal.

Thank you for your understanding.
